

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
BLOOMINGTON

Russian Studies Workshop
GRADUATE STUDENT AWARDS
DEADLINE: February 15, 2018

Complete and return this cover letter by email to the Russian Studies Workshop (rsw@iu.edu) along with your completed application materials. If you are applying for multiple awards, please submit a separate cover letter for each application.

Name: _____

Name of funding award: _____

E-mail Address: _____

Home Department: _____

Local Address: _____

_____

Phone Number: _____

Advisor name & email: _____

Sources of alternative funding to be used during the proposed award period (anticipated, received or pending, with amount):

1. _____

2. _____

Total amount of funding requested (estimate rounded to the nearest 100 dollar level): _____

The following materials are required for all applications:

- CV
- Unofficial Transcript
- Research Statement (including plan of completion if applying for dissertation write-up grant)
- Letter of support/endorsement (to be submitted separately by faculty member)

Letters of support should assess the applicant's potential, affirm the value of support for the applicant's continued success, and evaluate the intellectual contribution of the applicant's work in terms of disciplinary debate and its potential impact on Russian area studies.